

The 23rd Annual Cookie Walk to Benefit Habitat for Humanity

When: Sat., December 1, 2018, 8 am - 1 pm

Where: Grace United Methodist Church near Glenn and Dean behind Kroger in Auburn

It has been 23 Successful years! Habitat for Humanity Annual Fundraiser is still a unique way to welcome in the Holiday Spirit of generosity and celebration. Folks from the Lee County community come out to buy fresh and delicious holiday-decorated cookies. The big event is sponsored by the Auburn WeHelp Coalition of 12 local churches. Our guests "Walk" the aisles lined with tables displayed with thousands of home-baked holiday Cookies and goodies while they select their favorites. After generously filling their boxes, shoppers happily pay only $6 per pound.

Each year there is Holiday entertainment, 2 quilts raffled for give-away, photos with Santa, and so much more! Come early for best cookie selections and join in the FUN & FESTIVITIES!!

CW COOKIE CONTEST! Show off your baking skills to Benefit Auburn Opelika Habitat for Humanity.
